Yes, you read correctly, there's some very exciting happenings on URDD. I added a new GIF to the Randomness section to your left. I like to think, that no matter how old I get, I will always enjoy & appreciate crotch-related humor. Plus, throw in a really cute dog, and you've got comedy gold. I don't want to read too much into this GIF. But in my mind, I think the dog was terrified that a sniper was about to shoot his owner, and he was trying to take a bullet for him. Maybe not. I'm just glad my wife is okay with the fact that she married a man with an 11-year-old's sense of humor. Enjoy!
